

eli bremer

A seven-time World Team Member, Pan American Games Gold Medalist, World Cup Final Bronze Medalist, and 2008 Olympic Team member, Eli is one of the most decorated pentathletes in US history. He graduated from the US Air Force Academy with an undergraduate degree in Economics and later earned an MBA from the University of Colorado. He was a finalist in the 2008 White House Fellows Program, owns a successful real estate investment company, and was hired by NBC as a commentator for the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens. Eli is also a co-founder of 5 Ring Insight.

Complimentary Trading Cards
Autographed trading cards are available at all of Eli's appearances.

Athletic Background

- 2008 Olympic Team Member
- 2007 Pan American Games Gold Medalist
- Seven-time World Team Member (01-03, 05-08)
- 12-time finalist on World Cup Circuit (06-08)
- Consistently ranked in Top 20 in the world since 2005
- Two-time U.S. Nationals champion (02, 06), 3-time Bronze Medalist at U.S. Nationals
- Graduate of US Air Force Academy (2000)
- Captain, United States Air Force Reserves
- MBA, University of Colorado (2006)
- NBC Olympic Color Commentator for Pentathlon

"Thank you so much for taking the time out of your schedule to come and speak at our school. The feedback was amazing from the students, staff and parents. You really made a tremendous impact on our kids. Again, thank you for coming."

Angela Miller, Chinook Trail Elementary

"We very much enjoyed your presentation and I heard a lot of great comments from students and staff. The pacing of the presentation, along with the video clips you interspersed throughout your talk was perfect. Personally, I appreciated your connection between working hard and not taking 'short cuts' to success."

Bob Wedel, Principal
Edith Wolford Elementary

